DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3, and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bertha (US 1,775,061). Bertha shows a pillow cover that comprises an outer cover 8 attached to an inner cover 9 along an end seam 10, with the outer cover being turned over so as to overlay the inner cover. The inner cover 9 includes an open end with a flap 12 forming an extension of the lower panel of the cover. The flap includes a pair of buttons 15 attached to an upper face of the flap, when the flap is turned into the interior of the inner cover the buttons 15 can engage buttonholes 16 formed in an upper panel of the inner cover 9. The claims do not preclude the use of the "extra: outer cover 8 of Bertha, and since the inner cover 9 shows all of the claimed subject matter the claims are anticipated.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2 and 5 to 16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 17 and 18 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Gionet, Van Pelt, Schnadig, and Levy show pillow covers that are of particular interest.
